Skill #1 (Refer to the Systematic Group Leadership Training document)

Consultative – “Leader Decides With Input from the Group”:: of, relating to, or intended for consultation: ADVISORY(Consultative. (n.d.). The Merriam-Webster.Com Dictionary. Retrieved July 30, 2022).

The best example of this is when the Leader starts the prompting and the rhythm of the group meeting. He set the tone of when to get the input from the woman for her opinion of the man that has a complaint that his wife won't give him a child, and then she asked if he ever thought about it from another point of view of why his wife would not want a child if it had something to do
