

Topic 5 DQ 1:

Assessment Description

Provide an example of each of these leadership types:

- Transformational
- Servant
- Authoritative
- Delegative
- Participative

Next, select one leadership type and explain how it could influence the role and development of power within a group.

Transformational: a leadership style that is both inspiring and optimistic, with a positive outlook. When leaders are able to motivate their team members and communicate a compelling vision for the future, they are often able to bring the team together. With this form of leadership, a significant amount of attention is placed on morality and drive.

Servant: focuses on serving rather than commanding or pursuing authority, with an emphasis on the well-being and development of those who follow them. In order to create both individual and collective growth, servant leaders demonstrate empathy, humility, and a dedication to serving the needs of their team members. This is done with the intention of supporting development on both levels.

Authoritative: Through their activities, these leaders demonstrate what it means to be a leader, and they offer direction to everyone else regarding what they ought to be doing. The person who oversees me at the preschool where I work is something that I think about. In addition to inspiring us, she directs us in the proper route.

When we are confronted with difficulties, she will provide direction and
