

ENGL 117 Week 2 Quiz: Grammar - Sentence Fragments

1. Which of the following is not a sentence fragment? Choose the item that represents a correct, full sentence.

Group of answer choices

- Although I should not.
- I watch television in bed every night.
- Which gives me insomnia.

2. Which of the following statements is true?

Group of answer choices

- A sentence fragment can contain an adverb and still be a fragment.
- The only way to repair a sentence fragment is by placing a period at the end of it.
- A sentence fragment always begins with an adjective.

3. Which of the following includes a sentence fragment? Choose the item in which one of the sentences is not a complete, correct sentence. Two items contain all complete sentences; one item contains a sentence fragment.

Group of answer choices

- Because I lied, my friend is angry. I am sad because my friend is angry.
- I am extremely sad. Although I really should not be.
- I really should not be sad about my friend's anger. She lies quite often as well.

4. It is possible for a complete independent sentence to be a sentence fragment.

- False
- True

5. He wrote a masterful review. Although he'd never actually read the book he reviewed.

- Yes
- No