

Week 7 Initial Post for the Writing Workshop

Perfecting a Process Analysis Essay Body Paragraph

For this week's initial post in the writing workshop, you will focus closely on 1 of your body paragraphs from your Week 6 Process Analysis Essay Draft.

Instructions:

- Choose the 1 body paragraph in your Process Analysis Essay Draft that you feel needs the most work.
- Do not choose the introduction paragraph or the conclusion paragraph. You must work with one of your three body paragraphs.
- Paste the full body paragraph (1 paragraph from the body of your process analysis essay as it exists now) below, with the first line appropriately indented and the entire paragraph double-spaced, just as all paragraphs in your essay should appear.
- One of the body paragraphs from the sample Process Analysis Essay is provided below as an example of a body paragraph and proper formatting.
- You may remove that example before posting this document as your main post in the Week 7 Writing Workshop.

Below, please paste the 1 body paragraph from your Process Analysis Essay that you feel needs the most work, with the first line indented and with double-spacing, as required for your essay and as shown in the example.

Example body paragraph pasted from the sample Process Analysis Essay:

The first and most important step in planning a vacation is to choose the destination. It is often difficult for an individual to decide on their desired vacation destination. The multitude of options presented on travel agency websites can confuse even a seasoned traveler, however, it only requires planning and preparation. When choosing a destination, take into consideration the budget, length of stay, and accommodation. If planning a vacation on a budget, consider less expensive destinations, decide the mode of transportation, and compare flight prices. In addition, vacationing outside the country makes it impossible to predict the challenges one might face and experience, hence why many people choose to spend vacations in the United
