Please choose the action that best represents a step you would take in each level of revision:

Global Level

You use tools like spellcheck, grammar check, and Grammarly.com. ▼

Section Level

You examine the ways in which topic sentence, evidence, and explanation flow together and make sense. ▼

Paragraph Level

You check to make sure you aren't repeating the same terms too much and make changes accordingly. ▼

Sentence Level

You check to see if your syntax (arrangement of words) could be stronger, even if the grammatical structure is correct. ▼

Word Level

You examine the branching structure of your thesis and points ▼

Proofreading and Editing

You set aside and examine multi-paragraph portions of your essay that address the same major supporting point. ▼
