Module 5 Lecture Quiz

Question 1

Per the lecture information and guideline information students were required to review, a hemiparesis requires a code indicating only if the patient is left-handed.

only if the paresis is on the right side.

indicating only if the patient is right-handed.

indicating the dominant side.

Question 2

If a dietician documents a patient's BMI of 38, the coder can indicate the patient as obese.

True

False

Question 3

The "NOTE" included on the first page of Chapter 16 in the tabular list indicates secondary codes from Chapter 20 are needed.

coders should query the provider.

codes are used on newborn records only.