

Module 7 Application Test

What is the term referenced in the external causes index to describe what a patient was doing at the time the injury or other health condition occurred, and used only once on the initial encounter?

Correct answer 1 - activityActivity

Acquired absence of left wrist would be reported with ICD-10-CM code .

Correct answer 1 - Z89.122

Per the definitions in chapter 20, a passenger is defined as:

- any occupant of a transport vehicle other than the driver.
Correct
- a person not occupying the space normally reserved for the driver and passengers.
- a person involved in an accident who was not at the time of the accident riding in a motor vehicle.
- a person traveling on the outside of the vehicle.

Coding guidelines provide sequencing when applying multiple external cause codes. Which is a valid sequence?

- Activity, abuse, terrorism, transport
- Status, activity, transport, terrorism
- Terrorism, abuse, transport, activity
- Terrorism, transport, activity, status

Correct

An elderly patient was injured when they tripped down the stairs at church. They were brought to the ED for initial evaluation and treatment.

What is the ICD-10-CM place of occurrence code for this scenario?

Correct answer 1 - Y92.22

The ICD-10-CM external cause code for an initial encounter for a fall from a sled is__.