

1. The nurse is providing dietary teaching for a client that takes furosemide (Lasix) for high blood pressure. The nurse should recommend which of the following foods as the best source of potassium?
-BANANAS
2. A client is ready to go home on tuberculosis (TB) medications. Which statement represents critical knowledge for the client to understand?
-The medications must be taken exactly as prescribed for possibly up to 2 years
3. A nursing student is discussing the common adverse effects of digoxin taken by an elderly client. Which manifestation listed will require further teaching?
-ANOREXIA
4. A nurse is caring for a client with type 1 diabetes mellitus. The nurse misread the client's morning blood glucose level as 210 mg/dL and administered the insulin dose appropriate for a reading over 200 mg/dL before the client's breakfast. Which of the following actions is the nurse's priority?
-MONITOR THE CLIENT FOR HYPOGLYCEMIA
5. A nonspecific beta 1, beta 2 blocker is contraindicated in clients who have a history of which of the following conditions?
-ASTHMA
6. A nurse is preparing to administer chlorthalidone 75 mg by mouth every 8 hours to the client. The amount of available chlorthalidone 25 mg/capsule. How many capsules should the nurse administer per dose?
-3
7. The nurse is discharging a client from the hospital with a new prescription for furosemide (Lasix). Which of the following client statements indicate an understanding of the information?
-"I need to limit my sun exposure and wear sunscreen while on this medication"
8. A nurse is providing information to a client with a new prescription for sucralfate to treat a gastric ulcer. Which of the following statements by the client indicates an understanding of the instruction?
-"I will take this medication 1 hour before meals and at bedtime"
9. A nurse is providing instruction to a client with a new prescription for docusate (Colace). Which of the following should the nurse include in the instruction?
-Take this medication on an empty stomach