

NR360 RUA Presentation Team Charter

Successful teams begin with guidelines that help to manage their work. For this class, you and your teammates will create a set of rules called a Team Charter.

1. As a team, complete all the sections listed below to build your team charter.
2. One member of each team will be designated as the team leader.
 - a. ALL team members and will be responsible for submitting the team charter document by Sunday, at 1159 p. m. (MT) of Unit 2 (or as directed by your instructor for campus students).
 - b. In addition to submitting a copy as their own assignment, the team leader will submit the final team charter to the Team Collaboration discussion area.
 - c. The team leader will also be solely responsible for uploading the final team presentation.
3. All team members will indicate agreement on the charter by initialing understanding of the information within the charter. Although there is no point value for this assignment, it is a required part of the assignment.

Helpful Tips

backgrounds and have various schedules and time demands, so working collaboratively is crucial. Timely submission of assignment components by individual team members is essential for the success of the team.

Supporting and caring for peers in completing the assignment.

Working with many people who do not have the same thoughts and/or methods of approaching a task. Therefore, all team members must collaborate to be successful.

Clear communication and presentation for submission/presentation.

Clear instructions for all team members to review and discuss in the Team Collaboration forum and then to the team leader, who will prepare the final presentation.