

The billboard acts as a warning to drivers along this road in Maryland to beware of tornadoes and the appropriate action that they should take to protect themselves from the tornado in case they experience it. The occurrence of these disasters has necessitated the need for drills