

1. What are scholarly resources? What are examples of scholar vs non scholar sources?

+ Scholarly literature includes the following types of sources:

- + Journals
- + Books
- + Conference proceedings
- + Practice guidelines
- + Theses and dissertations
- + Government reports

+ Non--scholarly sources are generally written by non--experts or ~~organizations~~ with a stated or unstated bias

- + Wikipedia
- + Blogs
- + Websites

2. Which sources would you use to identify researchable problems?

+ Researchable problems can come from an almost unlimited number of sources.

+ The following are some sources for researchable problems:

- + Clinical practice observations
- + Educational processes and experiences
- + Consumer/customer feedback and personal experience
- + Theoretical models and frameworks
- + Professional literature
- + Performance improvement studies
- + Databases (big data)
- + Research reports and priorities
- + Social issues