

QUIZ TWO REVIEW NR 449

1. Quantitative research:

- Reality can be measured
- Include descriptive and inferential statistics
- Samples that represent overall populations as subject

2. Qualitative research:

- Study the meaning that individual create
- Reality is embedded in its context
- Transfer knowledge from case analysis to similar cases.

3. Studying the rate of handwashing on a nursing unit as well as the nurses' perceptions about the importance of handwashing = type of research used is mixed method

4. Sources the nurse can utilize to find researchable problems? Performance improvement studies, professional literature, clinical practice observation, personal experience.

5. Statement that represents a well-written purpose statement that avoid bias? the purpose of the study was to explore the effects of music therapy on speech recovery in adult stroke patients in a rehabilitation facility.

6. Which criteria should be included to represent a good research question? Patients 3 days