

Question 15 pts

(CO 1, 2, 3,7) Which of the following risks can be attributed to an exposure?

Group of answer choices

Temporal risk is the amount of risk attributed to an exposure. Absolute risk is the amount of risk attributed to an exposure.

Mortality risk rates are the amount of risk attributed to an exposure.

The relative risk states the amount of risk attributed to an exposure.

Flag question: Question 2

Question 25 pts

(CO 1, 2, 3, 6) Which of the following best describes the cross-sectional study design?

Group of answer choices

An intervention is being tested against a control. They are the most expensive study method.

The investigator begins with cases and controls.

Exposures and outcomes are collected imultaneously.

Flag question: Question 3

Question 35 pts

(CO 1, 4) Which of the following is the best definition of validity of a screening tool?

Group of answer choices

The tool's ability to screen based upon gender and age.

The tool's ability to measure the population prevalence rate.

The tool's ability to measure morbidity rates?

The tool's ability to accurately identify those who have the disease.

Flag question: Question 4