Question 2

2 / 2 pts

A sidewalk preacher stands out on a street corner in a residential neighborhood at 10:30 pm on a Tuesday night and exercises his rights to freedom of expression by yelling at the top of his lungs that God is going to end the world the following morning. Police arrest the preacher, accusing him of violating a city ordinance against disturbing the peace. The ordinance, among other things, makes it a crime to make continual loud noises on public property in a residential neighborhood between the hours of 8pm and 7am.

A court would likely consider the ordinance:

Content-Neutral

Content-Based

A violation of the First Amendment

Constitutional because it addresses the residents' right to peace and quiet
