

This week's lesson has truly been challenging especially when being able to understand how to determine if a patient has restrictive or obstructive pulmonary disease when reading the FVC, FEV1, TLC results. It has helped doing the Edapt course work but I did have to reread the chapters and see the videos under the.....