

This course was challenging but I enjoyed it and learned so much. Nurse practitioners must have the necessary knowledge to understand and determine what disease the patient may have and provide the appropriate treatment and care they need. Good luck to everyone on the exam and have a wonderful break!