1. A 35-year-old archaeologist comes to your office for a regular skin check-up. She has just returned from her annual dig site in Greece. She has fair skin and reddish-blond hair. She has many freckles scattered across her skin. From this description, which of the following is not a risk factor for melanoma in this patient?

Age

2. The following information is best placed in which category? The patient has had three-cesarian sections:

Surgeries

3. Which of the following skin lesions is the least likely to metastasize:

Seborrheic keratosis

4. Which of the following brief screening measures is useful in assessing memory?

Three-item recall

5. A 25-year-old radio announcer comes to the clinic for and annual examination His BMI is 25.9 kg/m2. He is concerned about his weight. Based on this information, what is appropriate counsel for the patient during the visit?

Give the patient information about reduction of fat, cholesterol, and calorie because he is overweight.

6. A 55 year old bookkeeper comes to your office for a routine visit. You note that on pervious visit for treatment of contact dermatitis, her blood pressure was elevated. She does not have prior elevated readings and her family history in negative for hypertension. You measure her blood pressure in your office today. Which of the following factors can result in a false high reading?