

You are working in the Emergency Department and a 20-year-old female with history of intravenous drug abuse presents with concern of septic shock. What are the considerations in choosing the appropriate antibiotic for this patient? Explain your thought process, questions you would need to ask, and what antibiotic you would order, and when.

Septic Shock Clinical Decision Making

Student Name:

Chamberlain University

NR 567

Professor Name

Date Submitted