

Week 1 Policy, Culture, & Ethics Quiz

1- Which statistical test identifies a relationship between two variables?

Pearson's r correlation

2- A PMHNP is asked to determine if the patient has the capacity for informed consent. All of the following elements are necessary for making this determination except:

The patient has a therapeutic alliance with the surgeon

3-All patients have the right to all of the following except
To be treated by a physician

4-What does force field analysis prepare the nursing leader for?

Becoming aware of the pressures for and against a proposed change

5-What concept is defined by a sample that is representative of the population, and where the results can be generalized?

External validity

6- An elderly woman with dementia engages in a romantic relationship with an elderly man in her assisted living facility. She reports that their sex is consensual but she is sometimes sore afterward. Her daughter has discovered this relationship and insists something be done because she believes her mother is being sexually assaulted. What should the PMHNP do?

Evaluate the patient for capacity to consent to sex

7-Andika, a 26 year old male from Indonesia swung a sword at a doctor shortly after the sudden death of his father. He lost consciousness, collapsing to the floor after the violent attempt to hurt the doctor. Which culture bound syndrome best describes Andika's behavior?