

Week 2 Advanced Nursing Practice & Assessment Quiz

1- A 43-year-old man was involved in a motor vehicle collision in which he was found to have a blood alcohol concentration of 0.200. He was observed wandering around the crash site, slurring his words, and unable to provide a clear history. Emergency Medical Services brought him to the emergency department. The nurse triaged him to psychiatry for acute alcohol intoxication. What is the first priority for the PMHNP?

C-spine stabilization and head imaging

2- A patient who is considering electroconvulsive therapy (ECT) for resistant depression inquires as to the number of sessions she would likely require. Based on the best evidence currently available what is the best response?

10

3- Which of the following is an indication for monitoring of serum drug levels?

Smoking cessation

4- Which of the following is true regarding the influenza vaccination?

Those who currently have cold like symptoms with a temperature of 101.6 should not receive the vaccine

Correct!

All of the statements are true.

Anyone 6 months of age or older should obtain the influenza vaccine

A history of Guillain Barre 4 weeks after a previous influenza injection would be a contraindication for future influenza vaccination