

Week 3 Knowledge Check NRNP 6531

Question 1

1 out of 1 points

Medicare is a federal program administered by the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS). The CMS has developed guidelines for Evaluation and Management coding, which all providers are expected to follow when coding patient visits for reimbursement. Which of the following is an important consideration regarding billing practices?

Selected
Answer:

c. Failing to bill for billable services will lead to unnecessarily low revenues

Answers:

a.

It is important to “undercode” so that one does not get charged with Medicare fraud

b.

The practice of “overcoding” is essential in this age of decreasing reimbursements

c. Failing to bill for billable services will lead to unnecessarily low revenues

d.

Time spent with the patient is a very important determinant of billing

Question 2

1 out of 1 points

patient comes in complaining of 1 week of pain in the posterior neck with difficulty turning the head to the right. What additional history is needed

Selected
Answer:

Any recent trauma

Answers:

Any recent trauma

Difficulty swallowing

Stiffness in the right shoulder

Change in sleeping habits

Question 3

1 out of 1 points