

NRNP 6540 Final Exam

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS.

Question 1

2 out of 2 points

How does women's anatomy make them more susceptible to UTIs?

Answer: D. Their urethras are shorter.

Question 2

2 out of 2 points

The primary endocrine disorders affecting women are diabetes mellitus and:

Answer: B. Thyroid conditions

Question 3

2 out of 2 points

A common prenatal care model in which women have their first visit with one provider and then subsequent visits in a group setting is called:

Answer: C. Centering Pregnancy

Question 4

2 out of 2 points

When is round ligament pain most likely to occur in pregnant women?

Answer: D. Between 16–20 weeks' gestation