

NRNP Week 4 Knowledge Check

Completion This test can only be taken once.
This test can be saved and resumed later.

Your answers are saved automatically.

∨ Question Completion Status:

QUESTION 1

1. COPD is not reversible while asthma airflow limitations are largely reversible

- True
- False

QUESTION 2

1. COPD has rapidly progressing symptoms while asthma symptoms occur most often during the afternoon and evening.

- True
- False

QUESTION 3

1. An older patient complains of dyspnea, dry cough, fatigue, and swollen feet and ankles. These are symptoms of

- Hypertension
- Congestive Heart Failure
- Myocardial infarction
- Acute renal failure

1 points

QUESTION 4

1. Common causes of hemoptysis are: