

Question 1

1 / 1 pts

In a patient with chronic cholecystitis, would you expect to see normal lab values for which of the following?

- White blood count
- Amylase
- Lipase
- All of the above

Correct!

Question 2

1 / 1 pts

For the Rome III Criteria for constipation to be fulfilled at least one of the symptoms listed below must be present for at least 3 months with onset 6 months before the diagnosis. Which symptom is correct?

- fewer than 5 bowel movements per week
- sensation of straining
- no anorectal obstruction
- use of manual maneuvers to aid defecation in more than 10% of defecations

Correct!