

NRNP 6568 Week 7 Comprehensive exam

Course	NRNP-6568-11-Syn Adv Nurs Pr Patient Family-Fall-QTR-Term-wks-1-thru-11
Test	Quiz - Week 7 Comprehensive Practice
Status	Completed
Attempt Score	30 out of 30 points

Question 1

Differential diagnoses for patients with alcohol use disorder would include all the following except:

- Depression
- Pulmonary disease
- Peptic ulcer disease
- Essential hypertension

Question 2

Mary is a new mother who was tested HBsAG+ during her prenatal screening process. Upon the birth of her infant, the newborn should be given HBIG and Hep B within:

- 12 hours of birth
- 24 hours of birth
- 36 hours of birth
- 48 hours of birth

Question 3

Juan, an 82 y/o male, is brought to the clinic by his daughter with LLQ pain, anorexia, nausea, and vomiting. Palpation of the abdomen reveals a positive rebound tenderness, positive Rovsing's sign, and rigid abdomen. Juan's most likely diagnosis is:

- PUD
- Acute diverticulitis
- Acute pancreatitis
- Hepatitis

Question 4

Jon, a 63 y/o male, comes to the clinic with the following presentation. He reports a sudden eruption of multiple vesicular lesions on his scalp, forehead, and sides and tips of his nose. Treatment for Jon's condition would include which of the following drugs?