

Take Test: Quiz - Week 7 Knowledge Check 10/10

QUESTION 1

1 out of 1
points

1. What HgA1C level indicates a diagnosis of diabetes?

- 5.7
- 6.0
- 6.5
- 7.0

1 out of 1 points

QUESTION 2

1. In Type 2 Diabetes Mellitus, vascular and neuropathic complications may begin to develop and progress before the diagnosis is made. True or False?

- True
- False

1 out of 1 points

QUESTION 3

1. Hypokalemia is typically a result of inadequate intake. True or False.

- True
- False

1 out of 1 points

QUESTION 4

1. In a patient with hyperglycemia, the intracellular fluid may shift into the extracellular compartment, leading to decreased sodium levels.

- True
- False

1 out of 1 points

QUESTION 5