

Review Test Submission: Module 6 Knowledge Check

Question 1

1.25 out of 1.25 points

The APRN is treating a patient with bipolar 1 disorder. The major focus of treatment is on:

Selected Answer: mania

---

Question 2

1

.25 out of 1.25 points

The APRN would expect to find elevated blood levels of which of the following markers for patients with a diagnosis of depression?

Selected Answer: Proinflammatory cytokines and cortisol

---

Question 3

1.25 out of 1.25 points

Abnormalities in brain development related to schizophrenia are thought to develop when?

Selected Answer: Prenatal

---

Question 4

1.25 out of 1.25 points

The APRN is assessing a patient that is talking so rapidly and urgently that it is difficult to understand. This is an example of:

Selected Answer: Pressured speech

---

Question 5

1.25 out of 1.25 points

The APRN is treating a patient with bipolar II disorder. The major focus of treatment is on:

Selected Answer: depression

---

Question 6

1.25 out of 1.25 points

A patient with schizophrenia will have alterations in their dorsolateral prefrontal cortex. The APRN would expect it to be described as:

Selected Answer: hypoactive

---

Question 7

1.25 out of 1.25 points

What type of thoughts are characteristic of post traumatic stress disorder?

Selected Answer: intrusive

---

Question 8

1.25 out of 1.25 points

Obsessive compulsive disorder is characterized by what types of thoughts and behaviors?

Selected Answer: repetitive irrational thoughts and ritualized behavior

---

Question 9

1.25 out of 1.25 points

Which of the following are positive clinical manifestations of schizophrenia?

Selected Answer: Hallucinations, delusions, and incoherent speech

---

Question 10

1.25 out of 1.25 points

The APRN is assessing a patient that states that Napoleon Bonaparte is the King of France even though he has a book that says he is dead. This is an example of:

Selected Answer: Delusion

---

Question 11

1.25 out of 1.25 points

Which of the following are negative clinical manifestations of schizophrenia?

Selected Answer: Social withdraw, blunted affect, and failure to respond to simple questions

---

Question 12

1.25 out of 1.25 points

The APRN is assessing a patient that is talking to his mother in the corner of the room even although you are the only other person in the room. This is an example of:

Selected Answer: Hallucination

---

Question 13

1.25 out of 1.25 points

The neurobiology of depression is believed to be related to the atrophy of neurons in the:

Selected Answer: hippocampus

Question 14

.25 out of 1.25 points

1

Monoamine neurotransmission is hypothesized to be _____ during depression.

Selected Answer: decreased ▾

Question 15

1.25 out of 1.25 points

The APRN is assessing a patient that has monotone speech and unchanged facial expressions even though he states he is happy and excited about his life. This is an example of:

Selected Answer: Anhedonia ▾

Question 16

1.25 out of 1.25 points

Monoamine neurotransmission is hypothesized to be _____ during mania.

Selected Answer: increased ▾

1:14:10 AM EDT

← OK