

Review Test Submission: Exam - Week 11

Course NURS-6521N-35-Advanced Pharmacology
Test Exam - Week 11
Status Completed
Attempt Score
Instructions Please answer each question below and click Submit when you have completed the Exam.
Results Submitted Answers
Displayed

- Question 1

Women who are prescribed progestin-only contraception need education regarding which common adverse drug effect?

Selected Answer: Irregular vaginal bleeding for the first few months

- Question 2

The laboratory monitoring required when a patient is on a selective serotonin reuptake inhibitor is?

Selected Answer: No Laboratory monitoring required

- Question 3

A patient who is at risk for DVT tells the NP she has just learned she is pregnant. The NP should expect that this patient will use which of the following anticoagulant medications?

Selected Answer: Heparin

- Question 4

The NP student knows that which statement below accurately describes the activity of naloxone?

Selected Answer: It may induce immediate withdrawal symptoms and chronic opiate users

- Question 5

A patient is taking etoposide for a testicular tumor refractory to treatment. The nursing assessment reveals that he is also taking warfarin. The nurse must carefully monitor for which of the following?