

POLI 1001 Week 5 Discussion

Post: a 2- to 3-paragraph analysis of your political ideology and party identification. Explain the results of your political quiz, including how your political ideology might affect your voting decisions and which party (or parties) best encompasses your political views. Then explain why having a political ideology and party identification is important, whether or not you are a formal member of a party (and why), and what role you think the media plays in shaping your political ideology and identification

Answer

I wouldn't describe myself as a political person and I certainly don't follow candidates or the issues until the week of an election or I call my friend who's a politics buff and ask him who I should vote for. Although, I don't consider myself Political, I do feel that it is my civic duty to vote and as an African American I owe it to those who fought and died for me to have that right to do so and I've voted in