

Score for this quiz: 10 out of 10

Question 1

1 / 1 pts

When performing an incision and drainage, a #11 scalpel is typically used.

True

False

Question 2

1 / 1 pts

The most common complaint of the use of tissue glues is:

Early dehiscence

Glove getting stuck to the patient

Higher infection rate than staples and sutures

More need for painful injectable anesthetic

Question 3

1 / 1 pts

The following area(s) are not recommended for cryosurgery:

A. Areas where hair loss is critical to the patient

B. Anywhere on the face

C. Over superficial cutaneous neves